

The Western Regional Instrumentation Centre, Mumbai, an autonomous institute, fully funded by the University Grants Commission and set up in association with University of Mumbai, is devoted to instrumentation and its development in the Indian Universities, needs a Director to lead and direct educational, research and developmental programmes.

Essential Attributes/Qualifications:

1. (a) An eminent scholar with Ph. D. in a branch of science or technology.
(b) Consistently good academic record with first or higher second class in Master's degree in Science or Technology or first class Bachelor's Degree of integrated Ph.D. programme in Science or Technology.
2. At least ten years' experience of research and teaching in a reputed research or educational institute or instrumentation laboratory.
3. Published research work with a minimum of 10 publications in peer reviewed journals of good impact factor and experience in guiding advanced research.
4. Proven ability in designing and building major instruments.
5. Capacity to lead and direct R & D activities.

Desirable Attributes/Qualifications:

1. Working knowledge of modern sophisticated instruments including computer based instrumentation.
2. Managing and administering work of scientists and technicians.
3. Interest in science and technology education.

Other general conditions:

- (a) Minimum starting basic pay will be ₹43,000/- p.m. in the Pay Band IV of ₹ 37400 – 67000, with the applicable AGP of ₹10000 as per present U.G.C. regulations.
- (b) Higher starting pay may be given to the deserving candidate.
- (c) Probation period of one year.
- (d) After satisfactory completion of the probationary period, selected candidate will be eligible for post retirement benefits as per rules.
- (e) Age limit for applicant: Not exceeding 57 years as on 1st April 2013.
- (f) Applicants should clearly state in their applications particulars such as full name, address, date of birth, nationality, educational qualifications, experience, names and addresses of two referees and any other relevant information. Attested true copies of certificates/testimonials and evidence of achievements should accompany the application. Applications from candidates already in Government/Semi-Government/Public undertaking service should be sent through proper channel.
- (g) The completed applications in an envelope superscribed with the name of the post applied for should reach The Director, Western Regional Instrumentation Centre, University of Mumbai, Vidyanagari, Kalina, Santacruz (E), Mumbai 400 098, on or before Thursday, 9th May 2013 till 6.00 p.m.
- (h) The applicant, if called for interview, will have to appear for interview at his/her own expense.
- (i) Canvassing in any form will disqualify candidature.

Dr. Rajan Welukar
Chairman
Governing Council, WRIC, Mumbai